

5 THINGS TO DO TO PREPARE FOR YOUR IMMIGRATION CONSULTATION

#1

HAVE A CLEAR IDEA

about the benefit you wish to apply for (i.e. green card, Naturalization to U.S. Citizenship) or a problem you need to resolve (i.e. defense in immigration court, reopening an old removal order, or need for a waiver).

#2

THINK IN ADVANCE

about your specific questions and concerns.

#3

BRING DOCUMENTS

Bring you and your family members' status and identity documents such as birth certificates, marriage certificates, divorce decrees, passports, green cards and work permits.

#4

BRING COPIES

of any USCIS or Immigration Court notices or decisions you may have.

#5

BRING RECORDS

regarding arrests such as dispositions and/or records if you have ever been arrested.

CALL US TODAY:

1-800-529-5465
1-800-LAW-LINK

SPAR | BERNSTEIN
www.lawsb.com Law Offices

Brad Bernstein,
President

Nicole Hemrick,
Immigration Law

Marina Brakefield,
Immigration Law

Moonjung Kim,
Immigration Law

Rebecca Lenetsky,
Immigration Law

Shannon Laguerre,
Immigration Law

Emily Walsh,
Immigration Law

*Attorney advertising. Prior results do not guarantee a similar outcome in the future. This infographic is informational only and not specific legal advice. Consult an attorney about your specific situation.